

A bill was introduced in the Kentucky Legislature last week, the object of which was to suppress fraud and bribery in primary elections of Harrison and Nicholas counties. Speaker Owens, on the introduction of motion, assented to the floor and affirmed an amendment to the effect that the bill be added to include in its provisions the whole State. Considerable debate was indulged in on points raised by the bill. There is doubtless much need of reform in the workings of the political machinery of both parties in this State, but we cannot see the propriety of attempting to bring about the reformation by legislation. Take Mr. Burnett, representative from Trigg, it is our opinion that if the political parties have not honor enough to conduct their own primaries cannot be infused into them by law, and any attempt in that direction is particularity from juvenile poets, and, as the murderer seeking the victim, the poet seeking the truth, and as the slenderer adorns his polished shaft at the tenderest flower, so these attack where the victory is easiest and most assured. Don't grumble, darlings. Stand it like brave little women. You're very satirical—doubtless love you all as many as they are allowed to be. We know, and we judge the rest of the crew accordingly. Their fire—weak and when stronger you have nothing to quarrel, for they will seem longer to murder the innocent sparrow and the plainest thrush, and throwing aside the softness and feathered leg, will stride forth in their fire-lucks and stride forth into the deep wood of journalism in quest of their game. Ride your time or kick your heels.

It is fast becoming a household word that the Standford Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is one of the best in the land. Everything about the house is new, neat and comfortable and kept that way, and in the running of the concern no pains or expense are spared to make it all that a hotel should be. This is what makes it so popular, and furnishes the reason for every man who goes there once to want to go again. Our word for it no better hotel can be found in Louisville.

Died, of typhoid pneumonia on Sunday, the last hour, at the residence of his father, Isaac N. Duke, Joshua Duke, aged 18 years and 10 months. Aged, on some day and hour, and within a few minutes of the preceding, Ida Belle Wimsatt, daughter of Charles and Lucy Wimsatt, and granddaughter of Mr. Isaac N. Duke. Both corpses were in the house at the same time, where the funeral service was presided by Rev. G. J. Beau. Rev. R. C. Alexander held the burial service, after which the remains of both were interred on the Washington Duke farm.

Mr. Michael McCann, a well-known and popular manufacturer of Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I felt generally debilitated and my health failing me. I lugged and prayed for an iron constitution, that I might be rid of the many annoyances of ill-health. But dyspepsia and urinary troubles, attended by nervous prostration, had gotten hold of me and I felt my time had come. Nothing seemed to give me any permanent relief. Finally I happened to see an advertisement of Brown's Iron Bitters. 'Bless me,' says I, 'that's just the medicine for me precisely.' And so it was. By the powers of old Ireland, it has cured me of all my troubles and given me a constitution of iron."

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brands to all who desire superior cookery.

John E. Magan, of Buford, one of the finest business men in the county, a man fully qualified in every respect, a natural, honest and upright man, and as good a Democrat as Old Hickory Jackson ever was, is this week announced as a candidate for Assessor. John is a good one, he is, and has lots of friends.

Charles W. Massie is this week announced as a candidate for County Judge. Charles has succeeded well in law, is a good judge of law, a good business man, and would make a good County Judge. He is deserving of credit for the progress he has made. Give Charles a fair chance in the primary election, for he is a true Democrat.

Ben M. Thomas and family, R. B. Renter and family, and Mrs. Rachel Brown, all of the Southern part of the county, left for Ellis county, Texas, last Wednesday. They were among our best citizens and we regret to lose them, but wish them all success in their new home.

David Holbrook, alias David Fields, of color, got on a "high-toned" Monday evening. He was in at (Cross Williams', Red Front, making more racket than was wholesome, when our new deputy Marshal, W. M. Warden, called on him to desist. He made war on the deputy, who drew a pistol to defend himself. The negro knocked the pistol down and the ball took effect in a good box. Marshal Binger came to his aid about this time, and the negro tackled him and got whacked across the head with a good sized club. Help was summoned, and on the way to jail Dave became again too rancorous, when Henry Fields hit him a lumberer and quieted him for the rest of the journey. He was placed at Lou Hill's to board until brought out for trial under two counts, viz., drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and resisting an officer.

J. C. Turns turns had luck to good account. He had been losing some of his geese. About two weeks ago he took one of the unfortunate geese that had fallen a victim to some kind of a "varmint" and sprinkled it liberally with styreline. Next morning he had a red fox and seven owls as a reward for his loss.

Mr. Turns resides in the Cool Springs neighborhood.

The protracted meeting which was commenced at Salem Church, near Rosine, December 24th, by Rev. G. J. Bean, and in which he was assisted by Rev. Calvin Voyles, closed last Thursday night. The conversions numbered between 20 and 40, and it is believed that great good has been accomplished. At the close of the meeting Rev. Mr. Bean organized a church.

Mr. John B. Foster, of Deba, is one of the five young men of the county and is doing a thriving good business. He was in to see us last week and subscribed for the HERALD, and has agreed to act as agent and correspondent for us. Call to see John, say your good-bye to him, tell the local news and give him your subscription for the HERALD, draw one of our big premiums and be happy.

The wife of Rev. J. T. Casabier, of Rockport, died yesterday morning. Funeral services will be held at West Providence church to-day at 11 o'clock A. M. She was an amiable, highly respected lady, and will be sadly missed. She leaves several small children. We sincerely sympathize with Rev. Mr. Casabier in this sad affliction.

Our Hartford Police Court is getting to be a Court of dimensions, proportions and dignity. The civil docket is being tried this week, and it will take nearly the whole week to get through with it. The new Marshal, Geo. W. Binger, through his very efficient deputy, is striding things up. By the way, Wm. Warden, if he keeps on as he has commenced, will make the best and most popular collecting officer in the county. We do not except any body.

New Year's Gift!

To the good people of Ohio county I wish a happy New Year, and would say that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Jailor of your county, subject to the Democratic primary election or convention. It is a venerable custom, and founded on obvious reasons, to endorse by at least one re-election an officer who has faithfully and conscientiously performed the duties of his office for one term; and it is with pleasure that I announce that no prisoner has escaped from the jail during my term, and I invite the closest scrutiny of my official conduct, and respectfully solicit your suffrages for another term. E. B. SPILSBERG.

It is so strange that any one will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when Scott's Sarsaparilla and Stillinger's, or Blood and Liver Syrup, will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing scrofula, syphilis, disorders, weakness of the kidneys, erysipelas, malaria; all nervous disorders and delirium, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, skin, etc. It cures indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an extensive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system.
